Boureima Diallo

Pastor Boureima Diallo, a member of the Fulani ethnic group and a former Muslim, is now devoted to sharing the Gospel with Muslims in sub-Saharan Africa. Having endured the jihadist attacks ravaging the northern part of his region, he testifies to how the Christian faith offers a response of love and reconciliation in the face of violence and division. His personal journey and unwavering commitment highlight the transformative power of the Gospel in a context of conflict.

A wonderful opportunity to meet the extended family of Geneva's many Christian communities.

10am to 12pm: 1st service with Boureima Diallo

12pm to 2pm: Picnic on the mezzanine - Stands and art exhibitions

2pm to 4pm: 2nd service with Boureima Diallo

Translation

The day is bilingual, French-English. A translation area for other languages will be available. The reception team will answer any questions you may have.

Through this day, we aim to foster connections and collaboration among Christians, churches, and organizations dedicated to sharing Jesus Christ with the people of Geneva.
